"B. & O." Was a Misprint. To the Editor of THE EVENING STAR

I think the statement of "F." in last night's STAR was an error as to its being the Baltimore and Ohio depot that the party was circulating the petition for. A party called at my office with a petition for the retention of the Baltimore and Potomac depot on the mall, and when I declined to sign it he said he "didn't care a d—n where the depot was, but he got two cents for each name he obtained." D.

Two Cents Apiece for Names. By a typographical error "F." in his commu nication concerning the railroad petition, pub lished Wednesday, was made to say that retention of the Baltimore and Ohio station in its present location, instead of the Baltimore and Potomac, was petitioned for. Numerous agents of the railroad are ransacking the city for names to the petition at two cents apiece. The railroad lobby has also resumed opera tions at the Capitol.

A TUSSEL WITH A POLICEMAN. Sequel to a Liquor Case-Wm. Murphy Charged With Assaulting an Officer.

In the Police Court yesterday afternoon the case of Wm. Murphy, charged with an assault on Officer Bradley, was tried. Mr. D. E. Cahill terday by the rain, which fell steadily during appeared for the defendant and stated that this the afternoon and rendered the grounds unwas the sequel of the case of Bridget O'Brien for selling liquor without license, dismissed on games played in the Atlantic Association yesthe previous day. The officer had worked up that case and smarting under his defeat went to Mrs. O'Brien's store and assaulted Murphy, the officer should be the party charged. The officer stated that yesterday afternoon note was handed him in reference to a bill for $7.57 due Mrs. O'Brien from him, stating that if it was not settled shortly she would have him reported to headquarters. He then went down to the store and told Murphy that he wanted an itemized bill and Murphy replied by swearing. He then told Murphy if he used that language again he would arrest him, and Mnrphy dared him to take him and coming out grabbed and threw him and they were tusseling. Witness' brother came to his aid and Officer Tilling came up. In the melee Murphy got Officer Tilling's baton and struck witness, but with the aid of that officer Murphy was locked up. This happened near 2d and N streets southeast. On cross-examination Bradley said he had been appointed February 7 last, that he had served in the army a little over a month and was now about twenty-four years old. Murphy offered to show him the book and then commenced swearing.

Onicer Tilling testified that he heard of the fight, and ran down there and pulled Murphy off Bradley. He resisted, and in the melee he struck Bradley and the baton was jerked away from him.

The defendant testified that Bradley came to the store, called him our and struck him in the face and knocked him down and they then clinched and Bradley's brother interfered. When the other officer came up Bradley got Officer Tilling's club and struck witness twice, cutting his head, which had been stitched by the doctor. He denied that he struck the officer or scratched him till after he had been attacked. Bradley said: "I didn't make my case today, but I will make one now.' A neighbor and several young women corroborated Murphy's statement. The trial was not concluded and was adjourned till today.

"A PARTHIAN ARROW."

Testimony of Ex-Lieut. Arnold and Other Witnesses in the Guy Trial.

After THE STAR's report of the trial of Lieut. Guy of the police closed yesterday Private Henry P. Barney testified to serving eighteen months in Lieut. Guy's precinct. While there he knew of the existence of policy shops in the precinct, but never reported them because they were so notorious that he thought every one knew it. Witness testified that Guy had never given him orders Agarding them. It was common talk among the men that it was no use doing their duty, watching the policy shops, when it was evident from what they saw that the policy men were being protected by Lieut. Guy. In reply to the question of his personal feeling toward the lieutenant witness aid he was not particularly friendly, but was not an enemy of the lieutenant. The witness testified to a little fuss between himself and Guy which resulted in his transfer to the first precinct. He stated that the trouble all came from certain remarks which some one had told Lieut, Guy witness had made concerning the arrest of one Ena Johnson, whose house had been raided, to the effect that she would not be fined when taken to court by Lacy, one of the policy men, who promised to befriend her and produce her the next morning when court convened. He did not think she was fined, but he did know that when taken to the station she was made to leave $50 collateral and the same was subsequently reduced to $25, For cruelly beating a horse yesterday James and that he heard Lacy demand that sum from McIntosh was today fined $5 or fifteen days her for lawyer's fees, when he (witness) could This, he said, was the cause of his transfer. Then came Private Treadwell. His testimony, however, did not amount to much, as he simply stated that it was generally understood that Riley, one of the policy men in Lieut. Guy's precinct, was not to be interfered with. He stated, however, that he could not testify to anything which tended to show that Lieut. Guy did not faithfully discharge his duties. Officer Frank Kenney simply corroborated what the previous witnesses had said concerning the notoriousness of the policy shops and stated that Guy appeared to be on friendly her with great cruelty and that he committed terms with the proprietors.

Sergeant Burgess came next and testified pretty much in the same strain as those who ad preceded him.

> EX-LIEUT, ARNOLD'S TESTIMONY. "Call Lieut, Arnold," said Mr. Hazelton Some one in the audience corrected him and ex-Lieut. Richard Arnold came in and took a seat opposite Mr. Hazelton.

After telling of his previous intimacy with Guy, witness said it was his belief that the gamblers on E street near the National Theater, better known as Rum Row, were being shielded by Guy. When asked how he came to that belief he stated that H. L. Atchison, a doorkeeper at the White House, but formerly a member of the force, told him so. When asked to tell what he personally knew he said:

"I met Lieut. Guy on the avenue—I cannot to give any day or date—and he invited me into Harris & Shafer's to see a watch he was going to buy. He went either to Mr. Shafer or Mr. Harris-I think likely Mr. Shafer-and said something to him and he produced a gold watch. Lieut. Guy asked me what I thought of the watch and I told him I thought it was a reference to auditor. very beautiful watch. After looking at the watch I walked off. When he came out he had the watch in his possession and I have seen it on him several times since. I asked him what he had paid for it and he said $100. I asked him how he could afford such a watch, for it was more than I could do, and he said that

Max Hilton gave it to him. LIEUT. GUY'S WATCH. Upon being questioned witness stated that Hilton was a supposed backer of policy and that Lieut. Guy had told him that any time he (Guy) wanted from $100 to $500 Hilton would give it to him.

Lieut, Guy being asked if he had a watch on at present said he had, and exhibited it. Witness examined it and said he thought it was the identical one referred to. Witness then went on to describe how Lacy, the policy man, had come to him and stated that if he hoped to get a vindication and a reappointment on the force he had better make up with Guy. Accordingly a time was set and he met Guy at the Washington Circle and, taking him in his buggy, drove around the city and talked the matter over. Witness had gone to Guy because he understood that Major Moore was prejudiced against him, and that as Lieut. Guy was one of his favorites that prejudice might be removed if he straightened matters with the defendant. The witness then went on at length referring to his trial four years ago, and ended by stating in reply to a

A SCOUNDREL AND A PERJURER.

The witness being dismissed stood for a moment in a thoughtful attitude and then said that he had another statement to make, which was to the effect that on a number of occasions Guy had told him that he wouldn't hesitate to perjure himself, provided it would get him out of trouble. This statement was delivered in a tragic manner and when he had concluded Mr. McClaughton remarked: "That is a Parthian

The and, in short, instead of Murphy being on trial score was 1 to 1 for nine innings, but in the tenth Newark succeeded in getting the winning run. Both of Newark's runs were made by Smith, who was driven home from second base twice by base hits by Gilbert. Miller and Mur-phy were the battery for Newark and Gilliland and Hofford for New Haven. The base hits were 5 to 3; errors 2 to 4.

At Hartford the Worcesters won a game from the home team by batting out four runs in the seventh inning, leaving the score 9 to 6 in their favor. Worcester made 15 hits and 6 errors, while Hartford had 7 hits and only 2 errors. Other games resulted as follows:

The Alerts of Washington played the Roanoke team the first of four games and were defeated in a very exciting game on Wednesday, score 16 to 11. The Alerts outplayed the Roa nokes at every point, but played a very unlucky game, the Roanokes winning in the last inning after two men were out on a scratch hit. The features of the game were the batting of Haupt-man of the Alerts, hitting the ball over the fence for a home run, with three men on bases, McCarthy's first base play and White's shortstop work. The battery work of Kelly and Johnson was very good.

THE BIG FIRE LAST NIGHT. Burning of Walter's Carriage Factory, Corner Fourteenth and D Streets.

This morning, a few minutes past midnight, Policeman Sam Nelson of the first precinct discovered that Chas. C. Walter's carriage factory and repair shop, corner of 14th and D streets northwest, was on fire, and he turned in an alarm from box No. 157. In less than five minutes afterward the firemen were playing a stream upon the handsome brick structure, which was then a mass of flames. The building is four stories high and a pretty cupola adorned the corner of it. When the officer first saw the flames they were apparently on the second floor. Owing to the building containing such a large quantity of combustible material the flames spread rapidly and soon reached every floor above the first. There was a large elevator shaft in the building, which assisted in carrying the flames to the upper stories.

The firemen seeing that they could not save anything in the burning building above the st floor divided their attention between that and the adjacent property, and with considerable effort they managed to prevent the flames from spreading. The cabs and wagons in the Union Transfer Company's stables adjoining were all removed during the fire, but the worl proved to be unnecessary.

The cause of the fire is not known. It was thought by some that the fire originated in the blacksmith shop, but the officer who discovered it is of the opinion that it originated on the second floor.

The building was entirely gutted, but it is not thought that much of the outer walls will have to be taken down.

Mr. Walter arrived at the burning building about 3 o'clock and remained there until long after daybreak. He told a STAR reporter this morning that he was unable to give any esti-mate of the amount of damage or of the insur-ance on it. The insurance, he said, was very light and will nothing like cover half the amount of damage. The loss is estimated by others at from $25,000 to $40,000.

THEY RAN AWAY TO MARRY. Ex-Governor Sprague's Sister-in-Law Contracts an Unlawful Union.

Cleo Juliet Weed, sister of the second wife of ex-Governor Sprague, has furnished the romance and sensation of the hour for the summer people at Narragansett Pier and Newport, She is a very pretty woman of exquisite form. For several weeks she has been the guest of Governor Sprague at his palatial home at Canonchet. During this time she formed the acquaintance of Howard S. Eaton of Lynn, Mass., who for six weeks has been attending to some electrical engineering at the electric light station. Tuesday MissWeed left the famousCanonchet, and meeting Mr. Eaton entered his carriage and drove toward Kingston. Young Eaton had just before this gone to the office of the clerk of Narragansett district and obtained a mar-riage license, in doing which he gave his age as twenty-one and his birthplace as Lynn, and her age as twenty-one and birthplace as Stamford, Conn. On arriving at Kingston Hill they called on Rev. Mr. Clark, the Baptist minister, and were speedily made man and wife. They returned to the pier, Mrs. Eaton going alone to her sister's house and informing Mrs. Sprague that she and Eaton had eloped and were married. Word was sent to Eaton to report at once at Canonchet, and there he was catechised by Governor Sprague, who knew that Cleo was not of age and who doubted Eaton's statement as to his own age. The result of this interview was that Eaton was informed that his marriage was illegal, inasmuch as he had failed to comply with the law by neglecting to get a permit from Miss Weed's guardian and from his own people, which could alone sanction the marriage in Rhode Island.

Eaton applied at the clerk's office for verification of Gov. Sprague's statement and went from there feeling much disappointed. The bride slept at Canonchet and the young husband at his boarding house. Gov. Sprague ob jected to the marriage because he and his wife knew little or nothing of Eaton's antecedents. It is ascertained that he is a graduate of a technical school and was formerly employed at the Thomson-Houston Works in Lynn. His mother says he lacks a few weeks of twenty-one years. Gov. Sprague is to have the marriage annulled on account of its illegality.

From the London Daily News.
Our readers will be surprised to learn that thieves have lately been at work at the Roya Academy, Miss M. Josephine Gibson being the victim. She exhibits eight miniatures, two of which have been stolen. One, a portrait of C. screen on which it was hung, the loop of the frame being left. This miniature was recovered a few days afterward, it having been pledged before a collection of the screen of pleasures in special states of pleasures covered a few days afterward, it having been pledged before 5 o'clock on the afternoon on which it was stolen. The thief told the pawn-broker it was a portrait of his father and that it had been hanging to a lady's chatelaine and had been accidently wrenched off. It has now been replaced and is protected by a glass case. Last Monday, however (June 30), another miniature disappeared—a portrait of Mrs. Edgar Bowring (No. 1,543 in catalogue). This robbery took place about 12 o'clock noon, there being, we are told, a detective in the room at the time. This really looks alarming. We are assured that other robberies of miniatures have taken place duming the last twelve months and that the thieves have shown great judgment in their selections.

CAPITOL GLEANINGS. The House Passes the Bankruptcy Bill and the Senate the Indian Bill. The House passed the bankruptcy bill late resterday afternoon by a vote of 117 to 84, practically as reported. Some verbal amendnents and a provision enforcing the state laws, giving preference to laborers' claims for wages in a bankruptcy settlement, were adopted. The Senate passed the Indian appropriation bill late yesterday afternoon.

PLEASED WITH BLAINE'S LETTERS.

Representative Hitt of Illinois, chairman of the House committee on foreign affairs, thinks that the correspondence on the part of the State Department in the Behring sea controversy was very ably managed by Secretary Blaine, and he does not hesitate to express his admiration of Mr. Blaine's letters. "The committee on foreign affairs," he said today, "will hardly do anything in the matter without consultation with the State Department. As the matter stands at present there is nothing to be done, because the correspondence is still in progress." Mr. Hitt has talked with other members of the committee and he says that they are pleased with the stand taken by Mr. Blaine. Representative McCreary of Ken-tucky, who was chairman of the committee under the democratic administration in the House, stated that he believed the matter would be settled by arbitration. He did not see what was to be done while the corresondence was in progress. "The country," he said in conclusion, "is at present in no better shape than it was when Mr. Bayard went out of office over a year ago." Chairman Hitt has ordered copies of the correspondence to be printed for the use of the committee. SENATOR CALL'S RESOLUTION. Mr. Call introduced in the Senate yesterday resolution (which was allowed to lie on the table) instructing the Senate committee on interstate commerce to inquire and report to the Senate whether any arrangements have been made between persons owning elevators and the transportation companies in any of the western states which will have the effect, or which are intended to have the effect, of preventing the storage of grain and of compelling the farmers to sell their grain at such prices as may be offered. Also whether such arrange-ments have been made in the states which produce cotton, tobacco and other farm products.

Also to report by bill such legislation as will require elevator companies and all persons engaged in the business of storing grain and other farm products for interstate commerce to store such grain and other farm products when offered, to the extent of their capacity, on reasonable charges, and will prevent and punish combination between persons engaged in such business and transportation companies or their agents which have the effect and have been made or shall be made with the intent of forcing farmers to sell their products or in any other way affect the market price of farm products. TO INCORPORATE THE RED CROSS SOCIETY.

Senator Sherman has introduced a bill to incorporate the American National Association of the Red Cross, with Clara Barton, George Kennan, J. B. Hubbell, M. D., and others as its incorporators. The purpose of this society, as recited by the bill, is to furnish vol-unteer aid to the sick and wounded of armies in time of war, in accordance with the spirit of the treaty of the Red Cross in 1864, to which the government gave its adhesion in March, 1882; to succeed to all the rights which have hitherto been exercised by the American association under the existing laws; to act in matters of volunteer relief and in accord with the military authorities as a medium communication between similar national societies of the government through the Comite International de Secours, and to continue to carry on a system of international relief in time of peace and apply the same in mitigating the sufferings caused by pestilence, fire, flood, &c., and other great national calamities. After the passage of this bill it shall be unlawful for any other association than the one thus incorporated to display the symbol of the red cross in any part of the country. Gov. Merriam Renominated on a Protection Platform.

Gov. William R. Merriam was renominated vesterday by the republican state convention, receiving 350 votes out of 458 cast. State Auditor Braden was supported for governor by the Hennepin county (Minneapolis) delegation, which was hostile to Merriam for the sole reason that he is a citizen of St. Paul. Braden received enough votes fro m other parts of the state to bring his total up to 34. Knute Nelson got 74 votes. The Scandinavian delegation made strenuous efforts in behalf of Nelson, but his record of having voted for the Mills bill when he was a member of Congress seriously weakened his hold upon the republicans of the state. G. F. Ives was nominated for lieutenant governor and F. B. Brown for secretary of state, and Joseph Bobleter was renominated for state treasurer. The convention was thoroughly harmonious. Lieut. Gov. Rice was cknowledged to be an impartial chairman, and his presence of mind and judicial temperament kept the convention machinery well oiled and running smoothly.

The platform delares that, keeping the requirements of the government in view, our tariff laws should be so adjusted as to best protect our American industries and bear fairly and equitably on all sections and interests of the country. It cordially approves of the pol-icy recommended by Mr. Biaine of such reciprocity treaties with the republics of Southern and Central America as will open closer com-mercial relations between the Northern and Southern Americas.

A gentleman or lady now engages a balloon for a day trip and invites friends. The cost is 1,200 francs. If the trip be continued during the night, said to be the most romantic part of the ascension, the price is 500 francs more. All the comforts of a home are secured in the capacious car, and pigeons are liberated in the empyrean regions with quill tail dispatches for friends below. The higher the rise the safer and pleasanter the trip.

ALEXANDRIA.

Reported for THE EVENING STAR A DANGER TO BE WARDED OFF.—The health-fulness of Alexandria's water supply is threat-ened by a sewer to be constructed from Semiened by a sewer to be constructed from Seminary Hill, where the Virginia Theological Seminary and High School are located, to one of the branches of Cameron run. The state code declares that "if any person * * carts any dead animal or other noxious substance or matter * * into any water course of this state above tidewater * * by which the water is rendered impure or offensive be shall water is rendered impure or offensive he shall be fined not less than ten nor more than fifty

THE CASE OF THE LIQUOR SELLERS.—The order of Judge Norton's court in the case of the liquor sellers directing a suspension of their liquor sellers directing a suspension of their licenses for thirty days after the 15th of August has been modified. The suspension of the license was not made to take effect immediately because the judge desired to afford an opportunity for the disposal of such perishable stock as might have been accumulated in the restaurants. Now, however, the order is revoked as at these of the stock as might have been accumulated in the restaurants. order is revoked as to those of the convicted liquor sellers who shall before the 15th of August go to the clerk's office and take an oath that they will not sell liquor on Sunday during the continuance of their license.

JUDGMENT.—Judge Hughes has given judgment for $198.19 in the case of the Alexandria Marine Railway Company against the steamer Mattano of Washington. WILL FRANK HUME ACCEPT AN INDEPENDENT NOMINATION.—The letter of Hon. Frank Hume, mentioned in The Star Wednesday, declining to take part in the democratic convention at Lees-burg on the 20th of August next is said by some not to bar absolutely his road to congressional honors, Mr. Hume does not in this letter declines to be a candidate for Congress, but declines to enter the conven-This has been considered by some as indicating a possibility that ne might under some circumstances be an independent candi-date against Gen. Lee, when the latter shall have received the Leesburg democratic nomination as it seems certain he will do.

NOT AN ALEXANDRIA ISSUE, -A petition is being circulated here asking Congress not to remove the 6th street depot in Washington, but the general feeling is in favor of not interfering with the Washington people in the management of their local affairs.

MILITARY PAY.—The adjutant general of the commonwealth has made provision to pay each officer of the Alexandria Light Infantry $5 and the privates $1.30 for services in assembling at their armory on the call of the mayor to be ready in case trouble had occurred at the funeral of Fayette Lee, killed by Officer Ticer. The appropriation in this case is made from the military fund by the military board at Richmond, which is authorized to make expenditures "manifestly in execution of general purposes of the military laws and for the evident benefit of the volunteer service. Notes.-Messrs. Studds & Newby have been moving slowly with their contract for paving Patrick street north of King, but will begin in a short time to carry on the work with greater speed.—The steamer S. J. Pentz is at Moore's wharf here under repair.

GEORGETOWN.

FUNERAL OF MISS BLACKFORD. - The funeral ceremonies over the remains of Miss Alice Blackford, the third daughter of Col. B. Lewis Blackford, were performed yesterday at Christ P.E. Church by Rev. Dr. A. R. Stuart. The remains were shipped today to Lynchburg, Va., for interment.

A SEVEN-YEAR-OLD PRISONER. - Lewis Scott, a colored boy, seven years of age, was placed behind the bars at the station last night for being "a fugitive from his parents."

Police Court Cases. - John Jones, for swearing near 26th and P streets a few evenings ago, was fined $5 by Judge Miller today. "Guilty" was Chas. F. Coe's plea before Judge Miller today to a charge of having been found drunk on High street, and a sentence of twenty days was imposed.

ANACOSTIA.

PUBLIC SCHOOL MATTERS.—The criticisms on the public school system of the District and of our own suburban school facilities made in the citizens' meeting Wednesday night have waked up the natives. A new school house and other blessings are expected soon. Nothing was said in the meeting to the discredit of Dr. Witmer, the present trustee of the sixth school division, except that he lives at St. Elizabeth Hospital. where "they build us up a noble wall to keep the vulgar out" after the vesper hour, so that he is not so comeatable as some one else might be. It seems not to be known to some of our people that the trustee is expected to visit or keep an oversight of the schools of the en-tire county and gets nothing for his trouble. The need of more school room is imperative, and it was expected the new $25,000 addition would be ready for use by the 1st of January next, but as the appropriation is not yet available it is now feared another school year will be well spent before the addition can be occupied. As to music and drawing it is asserted that they have been as thoroughly and faithfully taught here as in any of the Washington schools. Prof. Joseph H. Daniel, assisted by Miss Julia Stromberger, supervised the mu-sical instruction, and Prof. Butterfield conducted the examinations, and highly commended the work that had been done. Mrs. S E. Fuller, assisted by Miss May At Lee, super vised instruction in drawing, and Miss At Lee gave several lessons herself in the different rooms. Mr. Joseph R. Keene, supervising principal of this school division, highly com-mended the work in several grades during the past year, which by those in official position has been deemed the most successful season in the history of the school. PERSONAL .- Mrs. E. B. Russell of this village, who for several years has been the matron at the District jail, has been considerably relieved by the appointment of a second matron who alternates with her in the work, each being twenty-four hours off and then twenty-four hours on duty.—Mrs. J. S. Petty is visiting her sister at Norfolk, but will return to accompany several members of the Women's Relief Corps to the national G.A.R. encampment at Boston. --- Mrs. H. S. Stow of Suitland is very sick .- Miss Josie Lee will recite in the contest at Glyndon today for a medal offered by the temperance folks. --- Mr. H. A. Linger is in

New York on a business trip. Mr. Cleveland Tired of Marion.

Ex-President Cleveland, with Mrs. Cleveland, is coming back to New York in a day or two, and is now thinking of going up into the North woods. He has become rather tired of the sea. Fishing has been pretty good, but in his opinion it does not compare with Adirondack fishing.

Gov. Fleming of Florida has written a letter positively declining to permit his name to be used before the legislature as a candidate for United States Senator.

As GOOD As GOLD.

So enthusiastic are thousands of people over the benefits derived from Hood's Sarsaparilla that they can hardly find words to express their confidence in and gratitude for this medicine. "Worth its weight in gold" is a favorite expression of these warm friends. If you are in need of a good medicine to purify your blood, build up your strength, cure dyspepsia, or create an appetite, try Hood's Sarsaparilla.
